Do you remember beautiful when you had long black curly hair and we did it after walking all summer night from washington square up fifth avenue to times square and across forty second street to the east river and back down to the village and you put on a soft white bathrobe and fell on your bed and laughed and did it as iron in the soft cotton and your landlord peeked in through his hole in your door and called in your name as soft as honey and you got off on me and ran out in the hall and slugged him and ran back in and said, come on ugly, lets go to your place, grabbed all your clothes in your small arms and got us in a cab and went up to my apartment and we did it again in your bathrobe?

Do you remember beautiful when long after we broke up you called me late one night and asked me if i wanted to come over and you sounded surprised anxious over the phone when i said, yes beautiful, i'll be there in five minutes and when i got to your lovely silk apartment, we sat looking at each other across the room for over an hour until you smiled that gleam and we went to bed and it was silk on a cloud and after, i had an erection for four hours and at that point you woke up and you smiled in half sleep and whispered, you should have waked me ugly?
